Orpheum Theater www.orpheumnola.com	504-274-4871 brandy@orpheumnola.com Brandy Romig	129 Roosevelt Way New Orleans 70112	The Orpheum is a nearly century-old Beaux Arts theater in the heart of New Orleans' Central Business District. Built in 1918, the iconic space—which is one of the few remaining vertical hall designs in the US—has hosted vaudeville acts, films and countless performances by the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra. The Orpheum is an intimate concert and performance space with perfect sight lines and unparalleled acoustics from each of its seats, which range in number from 1500 to 1800 thanks to a customizable floor seating plan. Three levels of seating, private VIP boxes at the gallery level and six bars round out the audience space, while six luxe green rooms and a full-service kitchen are available behind the scenes. The new state-of-the-art adjustable floor allows the space to be utilized for meetings and banquets. The floor plan can accommodate receptions for 550 guests or seated dinners for 300 guests. We offer state-of-the-art sound and lighting, a projection screen and displays for presentations or branding, green rooms that can be used for small meeting break-outs and VIP spaces for a fully adaptable event experience.	$5,500 - 11,000	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	M to F during the day and evening Weekends during the day and evening	Cocktail 800 Classroom 500 Boardroom 599 Theater1460-1730 Seated Meal 300

St. George's Episcopal Church stgeorge-nola.org	504-899-2811 jerry@stgeorge-nola.org Jerry Montalbano	4600 St. Charles Ave. New Orleans 70115	We have an Undercroft (which is our large hall on the ground floor) that accommodates 100 people at round and rectangular tables. This main hall also has a projector and a screen. There are three side classrooms that hold small groups of perhaps up to 8 people comfortably. Off the main hall we have a full service kitchen, which can be made available for additional cost. For larger groups we have the actual Church, which is located on the second level and is serviced by an elevator. The Church can hold well over 300 people and has an extensive microphone and sound system. The interior is glorious with traditional Tudor-Norman architecture and some of the best stained glass in New Orleans. We have hosted a number of large groups in this space and have shown films and other projected presentations with great success. The NOCCA Institute noccainstitute.com	504-940-2851 kweschler@noccainstitute.com Katrina Weschler	2800 Chartres New Orleans 70117	NOCCA's campus is located within close proximity to the French Quarter in the Marigny-Bywater, one of New Orleans' most vibrant neighborhoods. From a gorgeous concert hall to lush gardens, we've got a range of fully customizable spaces to suit every event and budget. We have a range of spaces suitable for performances and presentations, from the 300-seat Freda Lupin Memorial Hall, the 110-seat Nims Black Box Theatre, the casual, 90-seat Ellis Marsalis Jazz Studio, and the vast Solomon Family Hall. One of the many great things about being at NOCCA is being surrounded by so much fantastic art. If you want to hold your event in a gallery setting, 5 Press Gallery or the Ken Kirschman Artspace could be a perfect fit. If you want to pamper your guests in a beautiful dining room or treat them to a unique dining experience in Press Street Gardens, we can handle both! For outdoor events, Press Street Gardens is a great, versatile site, with a comfortable courtyard and adjacent to a lush, half-acre urban farm. Adjacent green spaces are perfect for small festivals, craft service, and more.	$100 - 5000	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	M to F during the evening Weekends during the day and evening	Cocktail 1950 Classroom 65 Boardroom 20 Theater 300
